And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sinne be blotted out from before thee; for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders,

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joyned together unto the half thereof : for the people had a minde to work.

7 9 But it came to passe that when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem t were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

o Nevertheleffe, we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall.

II And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither fee, till we come in the midst among them, and flay them, and cause the work to ceafe.

12 And it came to paffe that when the Jews which dwelt by them, came, they faid unto us ten times, || From all places, whence ye shall return unto us, they will be upon you.

13 9 Therefore set I f in the lower places behinde the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them : remember the L O R D which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sonnes and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

15 And it came to paffe when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we rewroth, and took great indignation, and mock- turned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

> 16 And it came to passe from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other balf of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behinde all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

20 In what place therefore ye heare the found of the trumpet, refort ye thither unto us : our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work; and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning, till the starres appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time faid I unto the people, Let every one with his fervant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may

Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children : and lo, we bring into bondage our fonnes and our daughters, to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them: for other men have our lands and vineyards.

I Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necefstie of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 Gods providence ruleth over all.

13 Wildome is better then strength.

For all this † I confidered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love, or hatred, by all that is before them.

Pfal.73.3: 2 * All things come alike to all, there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that facrificeth, and to him that facrificeth not: as is the good, fo is the finner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the funne, that there is one event unto all : yea, also the heart of the sonnes of men is full of evil, and madnesse is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 T For to him that is joyned to all the living, there is hope: for a living dog is better then a dead lion.

For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward, for the memorie of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envie is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the funne. 7 T Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merrie heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be alwayes white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

12 This wildome have I feen also under the funne, and it feemed great unto me:

14 There was a little citie, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and belieged it, and built great bulyvarks against it:

15 Now there was found in it a poore wife man, and he by his wisdome delivered the city; yet no man remembred that same poore man.

16 * Then faid I, Wisdome is better then * Prov. 21.23 ftrength; nevertheleffe, the poore mans wif- Chap.7.19; dome is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wife men are heard in quiet, more then the cry of him that ruleth

Jerufalem. 7 When the king of Babylons army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the Lond, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem to proclaim a liberty unto them;

9 That every man thould let his man-ferwant, and every man his maid-fervant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewelle, go free, that none should serve himself of them, to mit, of a lew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people which had entred into the covenant, heard that every one should let his man-fervant, and every one his maid-fervant go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed and let them go.

II But afterwards they turned and caused the fervants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for hand-

It may be that the house of Judah will heare all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way, that I may forgive their iniquity and their finne.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch , faying, I am shut up, I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou and reade in the roll, which thou haft written from my mouth, the words of the Lord in the eares of the people in the Lorps house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt reade them in the eares of all Judah, that come out of their cities.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the eares of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the fonne of Nethaniah, the fonne of Shelemiah, the sonne of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou halt read in the eares of the people, and come, So Baruch the sonne of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they faid unto him, Sit down now, and reade it in our eares. So Baruch read it in their eares.

16 Now it came to passe when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and faid unto Baruch, We will furely tell the king of all these words,

17 And they asked Baruch , faying, Tell us now, How didft thou write all these words at 18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then faid the princes unto Baruch , Go hide thee, thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the eares of the king.

21 So the king fent Jehudi to fet the roll, and he took it out of Elishama the scribes chamber, and Jehudi read it in the eares of the king, and in the eares of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king fat in the winter house, in the ninth moneth; and there was a fire on the Aholahs & Aholibahs whoredomes. Chap. xxiii. Aholibah plagued by her lovers.

3.1 Therefore have I poured 'out mine indignation upon them, I have confumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The whoredomes of Aholah and Aholibah, 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth zheir judgements.

"He word of the LORD came again unto I me, faying,

2 Sonne of man, there were two women she daughters of one mother.

2 And they committed whoredomes in Egypt, they committed whoredomes in their youth: there were their breafts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were, Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her fifter: and they were mine, and they bare sonnes and daughters: thus were their names, Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when the was mine, and the doted on her lovers, on the Affyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them defireable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus the + committed her whoredomes with them, with all them that were the chofen men of Affyria, and with all on whom the doted, with all their idols the defiled her felf.

8 Neither left the her whoredomes brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruifed the breafts of her virginity, and poured their whoredome upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the * Affyrians, upon whom the doted.

10 Thefe discovered her nakednesse, they took her fonnes and her daughters, and flew her with the fovord: and the became framous among women, for they had executed judgement up-

12 She doted upon the *Affyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorge-THeb. more oufly, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them destreable young men.

13 Then I fave that the was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that the increased her whoredomes: for when the fave men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Caldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15. Girded with girdles upon their loyes, exceeding in dyed autire upon their heads, all 667 of them princes to look to after the manner of the Babylonians of Caldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And † affoon as the faw them with her † Reb. at the eyes, the doted upon them, and fent meffengers fight of her 17 And the Babylonians came to her in- theb. chilto the bed of love, and they defiled her with dren of Babel their whoredome, and she was polluted with them, & her minde was talienated from them. THeb. loofed.

18 So the discovered her whoredomes, and or disjoynted : discovered her nakednesse: then my minde was alienated from her, like as my minde was alienated from her fifter.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredomes, in ealling to remembrance the dayes of her youth, wherein the had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For the doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of affes, and whose iffue is like the iffue of horfes.

21 Thus thou calledft to remembrance the levednesse of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians, for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus faith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will raife up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy minde is alienated, & I will bring them against thee on every fide;

23 The Babylonians, and all the Caldeans Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Affyrians with them: all of them defireable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an affembly of people which shall fer against thee buckler, and thield, & helmer round about and I will fet judgement before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgements.

25 And I will fet my jealousie against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose, and thine eares, and thy remnant shall fall by the sword : they shall take thy fonnes and thy daughters, and thy refidue shall be devoured by the fire.

Nd it came to passe in the eleventh yeare, In the third moneth, in the first day of the moneth, that the word of the LORD came unto me, faying,

2 Sonne of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude, Whom art thou like in thy greatnesse?

Behold, the Affyrian was a cedar in Lebanon t with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature, and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters | made him great, the deep let him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and fent out her flittle rivers unto all the trees of the field.

Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, il when he thor forth ..

6 All the * fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beafts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatnesse, in the length of his branches: for his root was by

38 Then faith he unto them, My foul is exceeding forrowfull, even unto death: tarry ye here and watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, faying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: nevertheleffe, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them afleep, and faith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is vycak.

42 He went away again the fecond time, and prayed, faying, O my Father, if this cup may not paffe away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them affeep again: for their eyes were heavie.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, faying the fame Words.

45 Then domethine to his disciples, and faith unto them, Sleep on now, & take your reft, behold, the houre is at hand, and the Sonne of man is betrayed into the hands of finners.
